

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Lowell Carlson is a native of South Dakota--born in Burke, South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Lowell has been employed with the South Dakota Highway Department in Chamberlain, South Dakota, as a maintenance foreman; and,

WHEREAS, Lowell was in the U.S. Army from November 1951 to August 1953, serving his country well; and,

WHEREAS, Lowell has devoted his life to the betterment of his community, the caring and sharing with family and friends and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

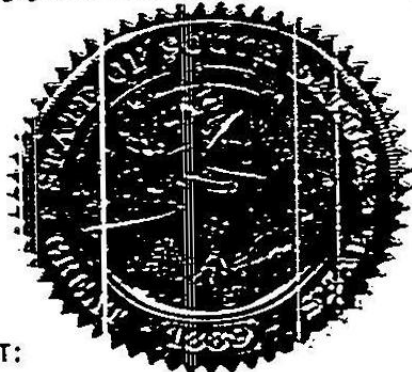

WHEREAS, Lowell is a devoted husband to his wife, Alice, and a good father to their three sons, Dennis, Rick and Lowell Jr.; and,

WHEREAS, On October 13, after more than 36 years of service to the highway department and this great state, Lowell is retiring:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 13, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I join his many friends and relatives in wishing him an enjoyable retirement.

ATTEST:

Joyce Hazeltine
